

Unusual Postal History

The following is to introduce you to a website I came to see through one of my customers and a site I think worth sharing, especially if you have an interest in Botswana and / or the area of Port Hood, Nova Scotia in Canada and the respective postal history of the areas.

You can find the site at <https://postalhistory.ca/>

A very distinctive image welcomes you and immediately gives you a sense you are in southern Africa.

Website Topics

Botswana Official Free Marks

On Botswana Government Service Envelopes

Botswana Registration Labels Typology

Botswana Postal Rates and Legislation

Port Hood and Port Hood Island

Morse's Tea Illustrated Covers

My Articles and Presentations

I am not going to repeat what you can enjoyably read on the site but this Table of Contents should be something to whet your appetite.

Personally I found the Port Hood sections of interest. Having lived all those years in Canada I never visited Nova Scotia. It is on my bucket list and even more so now, and if ever we can go flying again!

There is plenty else to read from the Morse's Tea Company in Halifax, Nova Scotia and from the other articles and presentations menu choice.

The site is written by Gordon Smith and he would be most pleased to hear from readers who have postal history material from Botswana or the Port Hood area. Gordon can be contacted on gs@postalhistory.ca
